

A 10th Anniversary Celebration with JCB

2012 marks the 10th anniversary of the partnership between Royal Orchid Plus and JCB and the co-brand credit card available to members residing in Japan.

JCB is a major global payment brand and leading credit card issuer with 69 million card members worldwide. JCB cards are accepted by 18 million merchants worldwide and card members enjoy the convenience of over one million cash advance locations in 190 countries.

In celebration of the 10th anniversary JCB and Royal Orchid Plus are offering bonus miles to Japanese residents who are new card members. On application of a card at <http://jcb-web.jp/rop1> until 15 February 2012 new card members receive:

- General card 3,500 bonus miles
- Gold card 5,000 bonus miles

Purchase tickets with your new JCB card and fly THAI to Bangkok from Tokyo, Osaka, Nagoya and Fukuoka and from Bangkok to Tokyo and Osaka during 01 November 2011 - 15 March 2012 and earn:

- Royal Silk Class 3,000 bonus miles
- Economy Class 2,000 bonus miles

If you are not already a Royal Orchid Plus member, enroll instantly at www.thairways.com/rop and earn an additional 2,500 bonus miles with your first THAI flight.

For more information on JCB, visit www.jcbcorporate.com/English

Terms and conditions: The following flights are eligible for bonus miles on all paid tickets excluding those in booking classes G/V/W: TG677 Tokyo-Bangkok, TG627 Osaka-Bangkok, TG647 Nagoya-Bangkok, TG649 Fukuoka-Bangkok, TG660 Bangkok-Haneda, TG626 Bangkok-Osaka. Eligibility is restricted to Japanese residents who are new card members during the promotion period of 16 October 2011 - 15 February 2012 and travel during 01 November 2011 - 15 March 2012. All eligible Royal Orchid Plus accounts will be credited with bonus miles no later than 30 April 2012.

