

Revision of THAI's Credit Card Fees

Dear Industry Partners,

Thai Airways International wishes to advise that effective for any tickets issued on/after 22 May 2018, THAI's credit card fees will be collected as an OB fee (no longer YR fee).

The OB fee only applies when a credit card is used as the form of payment and will be charged as a percentage of the transaction value as follows:

Mastercard or Visa	1%
American Express	3.03%
Diners Club	3.30%

- OB fees will apply to all fares originating from Australia and including SOTO transaction, ticketed in Australia
- OB fees will apply for ETKT first issues only
- OB fees will be capped at a maximum of AUD70
- OB fees are non-refundable
- OB fees are non-Interlineable

Important Note:

The collection of the OB fee, to be shown in the tax box, must be adhered to, according to above credit card charge fee, otherwise an ADM will be issued.

Should you have any queries or require more information, please contact your local THAI Agency Desk or Sales Office as per details listed below.

Thank you for your continued support of Thai Airways International.
