Thai Airways International adjusts Checked Baggage Allowance

Issued: 21 February 2019
Issue No.: 02/19

Dear Industry Partners,

For THAI 217 plated tickets issued from 01 April 2019, Thai Airways International has amended the checked baggage allowance as follows:

Class	Reservation Booking Designator	Checked Baggage Allowance
Economy	L, W, V	20kgs
Economy	K, T, Q, H, M, B, Y	30kgs
Premium Class	U	40kgs
Royal Silk, Business Class	J, D, C	40kgs
First Class	P, A, F	50kgs
Economy Class - Groups	G	20kgs eff from 01Jul19

Please note for infants without a seat, the allowance remains at 10kgs.

The baggage allowance will be applied to each flight's Reservation Booking Designator (RBD), for example, a return economy class ticket MELBKKMEL, MELBKK Q Class – 30kg, BKKMEL W Class – 20kg.

Frequent Flyer : Royal Orchid Plus Silver Members will continue to receive an additional 10kgs baggage allowance (on flights operated by TG); Gold and Star Alliance Gold Members an additional 20kgs, and Platinum Members an additional 30kgs baggage allowance (on flights operated by TG), across all classes of travel.

Interline Travel : If the journey involves multiple airline partners, please be aware that baggage rules may vary. In case of code-share flights the carrier performing as the operating carrier determines the baggage rule. In some cases the baggage rules that apply for the journey may be those of our partner airlines. For interline carriage, baggage provision IATA 302 applies. This resolution regulates which carrier's baggage rules apply when the journey and/or baggage checked portion comprises two or more carriers.

Carry-on Luggage : The allowance for carry-on items will remain at one piece/7kgs per passenger.
